

Italian Mandarin Fund 2 billion investment in health care software company Dedalus

Posted: 12/16/2010 9:00:00 AM Views: 130 Author: Zhang Yuzhe

Deal size of about 200 million yuan, Mandarin funds for programs to help the company find partners in China to expand its business in the Chinese market

Mandarin Capital Partners today announced the completion of the medical software company Dedalus SPA of Italy's investment, the deal size of about 200 million yuan, Mandarin Capital Partners as a minority shareholder to increase their investment to enter the company, its role is to help The company looking for partners in China to expand its business in the Chinese market.

Mandarin Capital Partners is the largest Central European joint venture private equity investment fund. Fund sponsors for the China Development Bank, China Export-Import Bank and the Italian Intesa Bank, fund size of 328 million euros. Mandarin fund invests primarily in China and Europe can promote synergy between the fields, including advanced manufacturing, pharmaceutical and health care, high-end consumer goods, energy and energy efficiency. In Shanghai and Milan by a professional investment team, Mandarin Capital Partners for Chinese enterprises in Europe / Italy's strategic development and European companies invest in China providing value-added services. Currently, Mandarin Capital Partners portfolio companies total sales revenue of 7.9 billion yuan, and employs approximately 5,000 people.

Dedalus is a company engaged in the health care system, applications and information systems research and development of medical software company headquartered in Florence, Italy, the country's 11 regional branches. The company has 550 employees, of which more than 300 R & D staff. Detalus company now has more than 500 public and private sector customers (including hospitals and clinics), and 22,000 individual customers (such as general practitioners, etc.). In 2009 sales of more than 50 million euros.

Comprehensive regional health information platform to provide information and data, make decisions for the Government to improve the health care system to provide the management level and efficiency of policy basis. Italian health care system places great emphasis on community health care (general practitioners), and prevention-oriented model, the current Chinese health care system reform and the Italian health care system model with high similarity.

Mandarin Capital Partners managing partner in the high-Zhen view, China's health care information technology have great market space, and Italy's management of the health care system is a reference to China.

High Zhen said, "Mandarin Fund will help Dedalus companies in China's major capital cities, and the economy is relatively less developed city, looking to build regional health information management application platform for the pilot."